

accountability: of government, 18 adversity: and character, 88
America: new character, 172; child's education, 182; freedom, and the standard of freedom, 179; future of, 365; greatness of, 178; heart of, 179; Independence Day, 108; Mankind, the cause of, 180; and natural rights of man, 175; and the people, 49; prayer for, 183; prayers of, 179; as a sanctuary, 176; self-image of, 184; world, as a model for the, 183
American: ambition of, highest 364; character, 167; governments, wisdom and justice of, 174 Americans: duty of, 229; governments, right to establish their, 22; greater interest of, 40; love of, 262 anarchy: and morality, 103 arms: depriving law-abiding citizens, 205 bigotry: v. education and free discussion, 280 blockhead: ignorance, 327 character: undependable, 324; and indifferent men, 356; and political position, 297; and public curiosity, 330 character, national: advantages of justice and generosity, 173; attributes of, 302; and local interest, 4 charity: and fairness, 251; fatal to society, 251; legislated, 250 children: and national debt, 151; and the burden of debt, 159; education of, 101, 182, 188; happiness, 101; protection of, 101; respectability, 101; scripture, education in Judeo-Christian, 188 Christianity: as soul of republican government, 188; first precepts of, 191 clergy: and wise governing, 118 common good, the: wisdom and virtue of leaders, 238 community: and civility, 87 complacency: allure of, 206; danger of, 206 Congress: assistance of, 186; and charity, 140, 242; and legislated charity, 244, 250; and debt, 153; and sound economic principles, 159; and tyrannical laws, 228; and limited powers, 24, 25, 36, 61, 64; and partisan politics, 67; and religion, 186; the will of, 69 conscience: and conduct, 79; dictates of, 131; freedom of, 67; sacredness of, 142; worship according to, 194 constitution: changed from freedom, 209; inability to survive, 270; pure virtue and a free, 257; as waste paper, 259 Constitution, The: and accountability, 18; amendment of, 231; arms, and the right to bear, 237; and charity, 140; and legislated charity, 250; death of, 24; and public debt, 163; defense of, 361; and divided powers, 24, 39, 27; and elections, 341; and encroachment of powers, 30; faults of, 275; foundation of, 36, 206; and a free people, 16; and freedom, personal, 20; and the framers' intent, 72; and government restraint, 21; interpretation of, 15, 38, 72; and the Judicial branch, 68; and knowledge, 87; and law, the rule of, 47; vs. legislation, 74; and limited powers, 14, 25, 35; and a moral people, 98; permanence of, 19; and assigned powers, 38; and delegated powers, 37; and usurpation of powers, 231; prayers for/in the convention, 193, 201; preservation of, 24; and president (the), demands on, 48; and Providence, the Hand of, 13; and the public good, 21; and a religious people, 98; respect for, 11;

sacred, 15; and unity, 40; violation of, 25, 61
 corruption: and bias, personal, 73;
 and charity, government, 251;
 and Congress, 140; and expectations, public, 297; and government, principles of, 160; in government, 350; and the Legislative branch, 63, 66; in the media, 338; and public opinion, 259; passion, the appeal to, 283; potential for, 32; and rulers, 304 corruption, public: despotism, and the need for, 275; and destruction, 270; and enslavement, 270; and virtue, lack of, 264
 courage: discovery of, 79 credit, good: and frugality, 159; and government, 159 crime: prevention of, 188; and breach of trust, 227; violent, restraint of the, 215
 danger: and duty to save country, 320; elections, interference in,
 335; of foreign influence, 308; of indifference, public, 308; of hasty public policy decisions, 346; of trusted men in power, 349
 debt, public: accumulation of, 159;
 and our children, 151;
 consequences of, 158; danger of, 150, 155; payment of, 159; payment of, 163, 164; and promises, 157 democracy: excess of, 343; and licentiousness, 256; principles of, 23; and socialism, 249;
 suicide of, 217;
 despair: no reason for, 93 despotism: and complacency, 216;
 and corruption of the people, 275; in democratic nations, 340; and divided powers, 30; and faith, 125; mild and extensive, 340; and morality, 103; and power, 207; and powers, concentration of, 221;
 and powers, encroachment, 28; science of, 329; and utopian schemes, 135; public virtue and resistance, 214; and "the will of the nation", 348; a zealous ruler, 304
 dignity: and freedom, 87 divided powers: and encroachment of powers, 221; consolidation by judiciary, 318; and the opinion of the people, 231; and security for the people, 35;
 and states, 35
 divine law: v. human laws, 65; universal superiority of, 65 division: of the people, 7; public policy, 7
 economy, national: and private wealth, 162; rigor of, 160 education: as the cure for bigotry, 280; of American children, 182; and freedom, principles of, 262; and government control, 298; ignorance, better than, 327; reliance on, 311;
 based on religious principle, 203; and the sciences, 262; and scientific knowledge, 262; and principles of virtue, 262; and preparing to vote, 341 elections: best guarantee against abuse of power, 337; and duty, neglect, 350; interference in,
 336; and neglect of citizens, 342
 emotion: anger, a remedy for, 296;
 and illusions of hope, 317;
 unreliability of, 76
 encroachment: and divided powers, 35, 28, 30; and limited powers,
 27; upon each branch's powers, 233; preventing, 12; the peoples' resistance of, 351; spirit of, 221; on state governments, 42
 entitlements: and the Constitution, 25, 61, 140; and dependence, 240; and incentive to work, 240; and the labor of the industrious, 243; and laziness, 245; and poverty, 133, 240; provision for, 134; and welfare law(s), 252
 equality: and government, 147; love of, 329; and personal pride, 241

error: philosophical, 5 Executive branch: and accountability, 18; and authority to appoint, 223; and improper conduct, 45; Congress, rivalry with, 29; and divided powers, 28, 30; encroachment of, 27; and public honor, 169; and incompetence, 43, 43; subject to investigation, 34; and the power to execute laws, 230;
 and the power to suspend laws, 230; responsibilities of, 47; subject to tribunal, 31; and instruments of tyranny, 228 family: and national debt, 151; and patriotism, 91; and religion, 128 finances, public: regular payment of debt, 164; productive, 156; and war, 168
foreign policy: and an "American character", 167; and enemies, 165; and inaction, 165; and U.S. interests, 167, 166, 359;
 and executive leadership, 169;
 and neutrality by choice, 359; and respect, 165, 167; and weakness, 171
foreign relations: always right, 96 freedom: blessing of, 309; children, education of, 83; defense of, 361; threat of interference in elections, 335; encroachment by those in power, 300; convincing enemies, 226; and faith, 125; false, 256; and fatigue, 89; a friend to, 255;
 and God, 78; a gift of God, 110; granted by God, 211;
 good and evil, 115;
 and government control, 298;
 government, yield(ed) to, 208;
 ignorance, 298; ignorance, public, 269; and industry, 253;
 and the law-abiding, control of, 215; and licentiousness, 260; and light, 311; permanent loss of, 351; men's own, 306; and the media, 289; and morality, 129, 253, 271; noisy
 "champions" of, 344; of the people, 20; most perfect, 274; preservation of, 218, 82;
 principles of, 83; and religion, 109; and religion and morality, 253; restoring once lost, 209;
 and restraint, 268; and rights, natural, 78, 144; and risk, 265; ruin of, 210, 226; sacredness of, 115; and science, 129; security of, 313; self-improvement, pursuit of, 236; surrender of, 269; of thought, 9, 28; and a solemn trust, 365;
 usurpation (guard against),
 309; value of, 88; and virtue, 109; and virtue, lack of, 258; and virtue, public, 264; and wise men, 317
friendship: shadow of, 333 frugality: and good credit, 159; and entitlements, 240; and the family, 128; necessity of, 82; as a source of revenue, 154; rewards of, 161; as a cure for self-indulgence, 154; virtue of (economy), 155
God: accountable to, 363;
 assistance of, 196, 200,, 204; blessing of, 126; and blessings, 124; bow to, 122; and the Constitution, 13; and an enemy of country, 116; and faith (lack of), 120; and freedom, 78, 110; governs in human affairs, 195; and happiness, 104; and Independence Day, 108; as ultimate judge, 119; and justice, His demand for, 212; laws of, 192; prayer to, 122, 132; and natural rights, 78; submission to, 125, 132; and Washington's last act, 117
good, the public: and compromise, 57
government: abuse of, 223; accountability of, 18; and arrogant men, 322; art of, 2; bad, 43; and civility, 87; and compromise, 57; and constraint, the need for, 288;
 control of the people, 334; cornerstone of, 191; and good credit, 153; efficiency of, 359; enemy, 84; as a necessary evil, 347; subtle expansion of, 301; foundation of, 175; freedom, at the expense of, 208; freedom, of republican, 213; and freedom, a lasting, 257; and the social compact between God and men, 202; and the public good, 118; and harmony, the power of, 286; and impartiality, 138; inadequacy of, 98; incompetence, 6; and industry, 146; interference of, 187; just, 262; and laws, complexity, 334; limits of, 351; and morality, 98, 103, 259; and Christian morals, 107; and the need for morality, 273; and public opinion, 331; and human passions, 98; and patronage, 160; perfection of, 185; power, 98; and unprincipled men in office, 350; and private property, 138, 139; and prosperity, 136; purpose of, 138, 139; reduction of, 160; and religion, 98, 103, 109; republican form designed by God, 197; restraint (Constitutional), 16, 17; and natural rights, 44, 144; and rivalries, 29; security of, 107; and self-control, 234; simple, 8; size of, 243; spending of, 162; and virtue, 109, 174; and public virtue, 263, 267; virtue, the need for, 273; and voters, poor choices by, 347; wise and good men, 84; wise and frugal, 236 government, constitutional: and the order of authority, 23; and the rule of law, 22; of the people, 22; dissolution of, 318 government, federal: and delegated powers, 37; and secrecy, 220 government, state: and delegated powers, 37; and divided powers, 41; and domestic concerns, 220; encroachment of, 42 gratitude: and entitlements, 248 happiness: advancement of, 311; Euro-American culture and religion, 186; and freedom, 365; of the people, 305; of the poor, 252; and religion and morality, 189; secure, government failure to, 342; and self-dependence, 253; voting (v. misery as result of), 364

Heaven: assistance of, 193; smiles of, 123

Hell: without religion, 114 honesty: in private life, 105; in public life, 105 honor: decrease in, 254; and inequality, 254; and unfaithful men, 272; weakness of, 254 ignorance: lesser blockhead than educated one, 327; and freedom, 298; governed by knowledge, 326; and surrender of freedom, 269 incompetence: of government, 6, 12; as a consequence of inefficient government, 14; and the neglect of voters, 350; and a weak executive, 43 independence: and the peoples' will, 261

Independence Day: celebration of, 108 industry: and entitlements, 240; increase of, 252; and redistribution of wealth, 149; rewards of, 133, 134, 145, 149; too much, 149 inequality: and honor, 254 influence: of example, 10; public policy, 19 influence, foreign: danger of, 308; and republican government, 316 ingratitude: abhorrence of, 246

Judicial branch: and accountability, 18; and Constitutional conflict, 68; and unjust decisions, 228; and divided powers, 28, 30; encroachment of, 27; and integrity, 75; irresponsibility of, 318; and a judge's perspective, 69; and the Legislative branch,